

COUNSELORS

Choosing a therapist is the responsibility of the person seeking therapy. This list is provided by Rocky Mountain Christian Church to assist in that selection. You, the client, have the right to receive information from the therapist chosen concerning methods of therapy, techniques and the expected duration of the therapy and the fee structure. You have the right to seek a second opinion from another therapist of your choice at any time. You may terminate therapy at any time, ask for a referral to another therapist, or choose a therapist you perceive will be more suited to helping you achieve your goals of therapy.
